Dear Diane, Cynthia and Humane;

I felt that I needed to follow up on our meeting and explain myself better. I started this as a simple email but it got out of hand and my OCD side took control and a simple paragraph or two soon turned into a couple pages complete with footnotes (it's a compulsive thing).

Thanks
Rich

Dear Colleagues,

I have been directed to send you the prepared request below. I apologize for any inconvenience this causes you.

'Yesterday I emailed you a copy of a power-point document entitled "Isotech-Stable Isotope Analysis". It has been brought to my attention that this document is undergoing EPA review for release. As such, based on the advice of the Office of Regional Counsel, I am asking that you return to me all copies of this document because the document has not been authorized for release at this time. If this document has been distributed electronically, please forward this message to all recipients of the document asking that the document be deleted or otherwise destroyed. Please let me know as soon as these steps have been taken.'

Respectfully,
Rich Rupert
